

iantangallery

TANJA GARDNER

Tanja Gardner graduated in 1990 with a BA in Art History and Fine Arts from Franklin College in Lugano, Switzerland. An important part of Tanja's education was academic travels to Cornwall, London, Paris, Spain, Sicily as well as Northern and Southern Italy. As well, Tanja was privileged to visit and study under a number of noted contemporary artists, such as Patrick Heron, spending several weeks under their directions. Her final thesis was "The Parallels between Primitive and Modern Art".

Tanja returned to Vancouver in 1993 and has been showing locally since that time. She is very involved in local charities the most notable being Arts Umbrella, since 1995. Her art can be found in collections in Italy, Switzerland, Germany, Mexico and Canada.

Education

Art Restoration Mentorship
Professor Paolo Molinari (1990-1993)

Bachelor of Arts, History of Art and Fine Arts
Franklin College (1990)

Selected Exhibitions

2007-2016	Ian Tan Gallery, Vancouver, BC
2005-2007	Winsor Gallery, Vancouver, BC
2004	Portfolio Gallery, Vancouver, BC
2003	Van Dop Gallery, New Westminster, BC
2002	Jennifer Kostuik Gallery, Vancouver, BC
1993	Petrarch Gallery, Parma, Italy
1992	Hotel Toscana, Frankfurt, Germany